LoveYouMuchly.com Expands Creativez United™ Bible Reading Plan Series for Entertainment Industry Professionals

A growing discipleship resource designed to help creatives, leaders, and industry professionals integrate faith, purpose, and professional excellence.

LOS ANGELES, CA — June 22, 2026 LoveYouMuchly.com today announced the continued expansion of its Creativez United™ Bible Reading Plan Series, a growing collection of discipline-specific devotional resources created for professionals working throughout the entertainment industry.

Designed for both Christian and spiritually curious professionals, the Creativez United™ series explores the unique ethical, relational, emotional, leadership, and spiritual challenges faced by those working in entertainment while providing practical biblical guidance for navigating those challenges with integrity.

The series addresses questions many professionals quietly wrestle with throughout their careers:

- Did God call me into this industry?
- Am I building my own empire or participating in God's Kingdom?
- How do I pursue success without compromising my convictions?
- How do I make a living without losing my soul?
- Am I using my gifts responsibly?
- How can I be a disciple wherever God has placed me?

LoveYouMuchly.com Expands Creativez United™

Each 5-Day Bible Reading Plan begins with a realistic industry scenario specific to a particular discipline and provides Scripture, reflection questions, guided prayer, and practical discipleship challenges designed to help professionals grow spiritually while remaining effective in their careers.

Current and planned disciplines include:

- Actors
- Writers & Screenwriters
- Musicians & Recording Artists
- Directors & Producers
- Cinematographers & Photographers
- Editors & Post-Production Professionals
- Publicists & Communications Professionals
- Agents, Managers & Talent Representatives
- Social Media Creators & Influencers
- Game Developers
- Entertainment Financiers
- Production Professionals
- Creative Executives
- Additional entertainment disciplines currently in development

Unlike many faith-based resources that approach entertainment from outside the industry, Creativez United™ seeks to engage professionals where they actually live and work—inside studios, agencies, production companies, creative teams, executive offices, and digital platforms.

The series also integrates principles from LoveYouMuchly.com's growing ecosystem, including:

- LoveMaxxer™ Relationship Intelligence
- The Servant Leader Accelerator™
- Emotional Intelligence
- Relational Leadership
- Kingdom Stewardship
- Professional Integrity
- Biblical Discipleship

LoveYouMuchly.com Expands Creativez United™

"Throughout Scripture, God consistently used artisans, musicians, builders, storytellers, leaders, craftsmen, and visionaries to accomplish His purposes," said Ben Morris, Founder of LoveYouMuchly.com and Creativez United™.

"Creativez United™ exists to remind entertainment professionals that their gifts are not accidents. Their creativity has purpose. Their influence carries responsibility. Their work can glorify God. We want to help people pursue excellence in their profession without losing their identity, integrity, or relationship with Christ."

Each reading plan also serves as an invitation into the growing Creativez United™ Prayer Group, a members-only community focused on Scripture-based prayer, encouragement, accountability, and discipleship for entertainment industry professionals.

The long-term vision for Creativez United™ is to become one of the most comprehensive faith-and-work discipleship resources specifically designed for the entertainment industry.
